RE: United States v. Malik McCollum
23 Cr. 323 (AT)

Dear Judge Torres:

I write to respectfully request a 60-day adjournment of the sentencing proceeding in the above-captioned case, which is currently scheduled for October 31, 2023, at 10:00 a.m. The Government does not object to this application.

Relevant to sentencing, I have retained a forensic psychologist to evaluate Malik McCollum and prepare a mitigation report for the Court's consideration. The psychologist has already evaluated Mr. McCollum, but is continuing to gather information from Mr. McCollum's family and from preexisting records in preparing a final mitigation report. Accordingly, additional time is necessary to allow the psychologist to finish writing the report, to allow me to review the report with Mr. McCollum, and to allow me to incorporate the report into my sentencing submission on Mr. McCollum's behalf.

I thank the Court for its consideration of this application.

Respectfully Submitted,

Andrew John Dalack, Esq.
Kristoff Williams, Esq.
Assistant Federal Defenders

GRANTED. The sentencing for Defendant McCollum is ADJOURNED to January 3, 2023 at 3:00 p.m. Defendant's submissions are due by December 17, 2023. The Government's submissions are due by December 24, 2023.

SO ORDERED.

Dated: October 19, 2023
New York, New York
